INDIAN VALLEY ASSOCIATES MINUTES,9/26/26
ANNUAL MEETING ON SATURDAY AT MARGARET TODD SENIOR CENTER-

CALL TO ORDER: The President, John Chiaramonte called the meeting to order at 10:37a.m. There were approximately 72 attendees.

BOARD MEMBERS PRESENT: John Chiaramonte, Tanya Omran, Vicki Martinez, Claudine LeMoal, Carol Cady, Larry Hoytt, Elizabeth Pedrick EXCUSED ABSENCES: John Bliss, Tom Tharsing, Harbo Jensen. EMERITUS PRESENT: Jonell O'Day, Nita Bruinsslot, Ron Witzel, Monica Brett.

John welcomed the attendees to the 54th annual neighborhood meeting of the Indian Valley Associates, shared a brief history of IVA, and the impact that it has had on Indian Valley. He acknowledged the emeritus members by name and had them stand up. He shared that they've worked hard and have been diligent to protect and keep our country feel to the neighborhood. John welcomed new neighbors who have recently moved into Indian Valley. Six new neighbors introduced themselves. John also introduced the current Board members.

EMERITA: John acknowledged Jonell for her many years of service and hard work that she has put in and helped Indian Valley Associates. John presented her with a gift certificate to The Board Room restaurant.

TREASURERS REPORT: John C. reported that we have a combined $12,764 in our bank accounts.

ELECTIONS AND NEW BOARD MEMBERS: Board members up for re-election were John Chiaramonte, John Bliss, Vicki Martinez, Carol Cady and Elizabeth Pedrick. All existing board members were voted in unanimously. There were also three seats open on the IVA board. We had three write-ins Jim Loftin, Jun Frank and Chad Arimura. They were also voted in unanimously.

SPEAKERS: Marin County Supervisor, Eric Lucan, couldn't be present as his wife has just had a baby. Eric sent a letter to our Indian Valley community. Larry Hoytt read the letter to the attendees. Yvette Blount-Marin County Firewise Supervisor-highlighted how to maintain firewise certification, home hardening, and how to file for grant money. Deputy Michael D. Thompson-Sheriff's Dept-addressed speeders, Flock cameras etc. Joe Bartl-Barlett Trees-did a presentation on the Mediterranean Oak Borer infestation in Indian Valley. The speakers each had a time for Q&A. They also stayed afterwards to answer any other questions that residents had.

ADJOURNMENT: John adjourned the meeting at 12:18pm

Sincerely Submitted, Tanya Omran